

Cedar Room

CLASS DESCRIPTION:

- Academic Focus: Cedar Room follows the Alberta Education Knowledge and Employability Program of Studies, emphasizing academic growth and skill development.
- Volunteer opportunities: We facilitate volunteer opportunities for students within local community businesses and organizations, encouraging active participation and fostering a sense of civic responsibility.
- Community Engagement: We place a strong emphasis on community engagement by organizing regular field trips and community outings. These experiences provide students with practical, hands-on learning opportunities that extend beyond the classroom.
- Job Readiness Skills: Students receive practical training in resume building, interview preparation, and workplace etiquette. These skills empower students with the tools needed to confidently pursue employment or volunteer opportunities.
